PITLOCHRY Festival Theatre

2019
WHY DOES THEATRE MATTER?

“Theatre has the capacity to transport, emote and inspire. It’s the spark in the dark – the tinder to our imaginations. And it sets your phasers to feel-good!”

During a wet Scottish summer, Pitlochry bus driver Don whisks his workmates away on a borrowed bus, in search of sunshine and fun in Athens!

Along the way, the mechanics pick up a stowaway, rescue stranded singing trio Do-Re-Mi and fall in love!

One of the most popular movies of the 60s, immortalised by Cliff Richard and The Shadows, make sure you jump on board and sing along with the happiest, hit-filled, feel-good musical of your summer holiday.

Celebrated and charming novelist Charles Condomine has invited a local medium and eccentric, Madame Arcati, to hold a séance at his house, as research for his latest book. Rather surprisingly, the hapless Arcati calls up the ghost of Charles’ first wife – the alluring Elvira. Safe in the knowledge that only Charles can see her, Elvira embarks on a series of troublesome events that quickly move from somewhat harmless to very dangerous...

"It’s discouraging to think how many people are shocked by honesty and how few by deceit."

BLITHE SPIRIT
by Noël Coward

Blithe Spirit is Coward’s most successful, inventive and highly-spirited comedy. It was the longest-running hit of his career, the film version of which memorably starred Rex Harrison and Margaret Rutherford.

If you relished our 2013 production of Present Laughter, then you’ll love this mischievous comedy that’s pure Coward at his nonchalant and sardonic best.

Supported by Katharine Liston in loving memory of Iain Liston
For the puritanical folk of Salem, Massachusetts, the news that their young women have been conjuring spirits in the forest is devastating. It means the devil is amongst them. And the devil must be hunted down and driven out, whatever the cost. Fear and suspicion quickly spiral out of control, unleashing a murderous powder keg of accusations, hysteria, lust and revenge.

“Because it is my name! Because I cannot have another in my life! Because I lie and sign myself to lies! Because I am not worth the dust on the feet of them that hang! How may I live without my name? I have given you my soul; leave me my name!”

THE CRUCIBLE
by Arthur Miller

Arthur Miller’s 1953 play is one of the most powerful pieces of 20th-century theatre. Written as an allegory for McCarthyism, when the US government persecuted its citizens for being communists, this parable of politics, religious fervour and fear is a masterpiece which still resonates in the 21st-century.
Band leader Betty is in trouble. Her glamorous band has finally landed a big-time BBC performance on the wireless, but various illicit liaisons with the Yanks have depleted their ranks. In double-quick time, remaining bandmates recruit new talent! Enter a draft-dodging drummer who is unafraid to don a frock, a nun who plays a mean ukulele, an innocent schoolgirl clarinetist and a rather snooty, soldier saxophonist. Will Betty and her assorted crew give the performance of their lives?

Based on the BAFTA-winning TV film starring Judi Dench, this show is guaranteed to raise your spirits with stunning, live vocal and musical performances of hits by Glenn Miller, The Andrews Sisters, George Formby, Fats Waller and more, with all the glitz and sparkle of a gone but not forgotten era.

“"A soldier, a schoolgirl and a nun. If they went into a pub, it could turn into a joke."
Strong-willed vicar’s daughter Margaret Hale has grown up in the rarefied atmosphere of rural southern England, so when her family relocates to the roughness and vitality of a northern factory town, she is thrown into a new life of strikes and strife.

Hot-blooded industrialist John Thornton rules his cotton mill with an iron hand. Sparks fly when Margaret challenges both master and millhand, only to discover that not all of her southern beliefs hold true.

Can reason overcome pride and prejudice? Can compassion triumph over a blind adherence to market forces? Can love bloom amongst the snowy fibres of a money-driven cotton mill?
Canada 1914. Sarah McCrea stands on the threshold of womanhood, facing a bright future in a new country. Leaving Ulster behind, Sarah and her family carve out their existence in an emerging community.

Drawn to one another through tales of a near-forgotten, mythical Ireland, Sarah and her neighbour Michael Donoghue become firm friends. But when Sarah and Michael’s relationship deepens and his determination to define his identity catches fire, centuries of conflict threaten to blight their love. And for Sarah, the realisation dawns that old battles are being fought on new territory.

First staged in 1998, Heritage is a poignant and poetic exploration of love, identity, tribalism and the need to belong. As stark and poignant as the sweeping landscape it conjures, all at once it is epic, lyrical and timeless.

"Carried across deathbeds
Across oceans to faraway lands
Burning deep into the soil
Blood in the veins
And fire in the blood
What fire!"
“I caught the finger between the palms of my hands and held it there and looked into his face. Already he was uneasy – he wanted to withdraw his challenge.”

FAITH HEALER

by Brian Friel

Travelling to the small towns and remote village halls scattered throughout Scotland and Wales, the Fantastic Francis Hardy, together with his indefatigably loyal wife, Grace, and their born-into-show-business manager, Teddy, promises healing to the hopeless and restoration for the sick and suffering.

Each of their stories in turn sheds shifting shards of light on events. Only one thing is certain however; Faith Healer Francis is at the mercy of his ‘unreliable’ gift. So where does truth lie? Showman? Con-man? Villain? Victim?

A haunting exploration of love, loss, belief and sacrifice, Faith Healer is often funny, passionate and tender. It will take you to the heart of what it means to love, struggle and believe.

Brian Friel is one of Ireland’s greatest playwrights. Author of Translations and Dancing At Lughnasa, Faith Healer is considered his masterpiece.

Starring George Costigan who is best known for portraying Bob in the 1987 film Rita, Sue and Bob Too as well as his more recent role in Happy Valley.

A Christmas Carol
by Charles Dickens, adapted by Isobel McArthur

A bright, bold new adaptation of the Dickens classic – one of the most loved yuletide stories ever written.

In one ghostly, Christmas night, miserly businessman Ebenezer Scrooge receives a series of unexpected supernatural visitors who are determined to show him the error of his ways. Scrooge learns to pity himself and to love his neighbour – but is that enough?

A fantastic, festive tale of redemption and compassion packed with feel-good festive music and song, dancing and joy. Rejoice with us in the Christmas spirit!

Isobel McArthur is one of Scotland’s brightest, new writing - and acting – talents, who was last seen on Pitlochry’s stage in the award-winning The Monarch Of The Glen. Now she focusses her creative talents to rediscover the heart of Dickens’ timeless tale.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL
21 December, 2.30pm
No booking fees or postage apply to Group bookings and, what’s more, there’s no need to pay up front. We understand it can take time to finalise the numbers in your group. For Early Bird tickets, make your booking as soon as you like and simply pay in one go, by 1 May.

The Standard Group Discount gives you longer to pay. We’ll ask for a 25% deposit within a month of booking and you don’t need to finalise your numbers and pay the balance until 3 weeks before the performance.

The MAC is a new, informal, friendly club which is open to everyone who would welcome the chance to meet other people who have just watched a Wednesday matinée performance. Created for people who may be attending on their own, enjoy open and refreshing conversations about the show with other audiences members and we’ll provide a surprise guest speaker. It could be an actor, director, stage technician, artist, historian or even a gin-tasting expert who will help get the conversation going.

Matinée Audience Club (MAC)

The Club will last 1 hour, but you are free to come and go as you please. Refreshments will be provided.

To say thank you to our extended community and hello to new friends, we are holding our first Festival Theatre Summer Party.

And you’re all invited!

There’ll be a barbecue, bouncy castle, and backstage tours. A ceilidh, cake and Cliff (look-a-likes!). Something for all ages as well as loads of surprises! And plenty of food and drink. Join us for free fun and frolics in the September sun!
Young Explorers

Join us for storytelling adventures on selected Saturday mornings starting at 10.30am throughout the summer. Children will experience their favourite stories being brought to life by great performers.

The adventure begins at our Box Office, before journeying through our magical garden. When you arrive at our Garden Pavilion, you’ll be transported to another world, full of music and dance!

After their adventure, children will make puppets and pictures to take home, as well as learning about how to grow things.

Brilliant fun for young, active minds!

15 June: The Very Hungry Caterpillar
20 July: We’re Going On A Bear Hunt
17 August: Peter Rabbit
14 September: The Gruffalo

Tickets: £5 per child (suggested ages 0 to 10 YRS)
Adults go free and get a free coffee/tea

Duration: 50 mins (approximately)

BACKSTAGE TOURS

Our fascinating guided tours take you behind the scenes to reveal the secret spaces and unseen areas of this unique Festival Theatre.

You’ll visit the Green Room, where our cast and crew relax and prepare to go on stage, see where and how our elaborate costumes are made, have a look at our huge scenery workshop, visit the docks where sets are stored – and, of course, set foot on the famous stage itself! Along the way, you’ll discover lots of fascinating facts like why we don’t prompt from the Prompt Corner!

Tours run every Wednesday from 26 June until 18 September (with exception of 24 July and 28 August) and are always popular so booking in advance is advised, although not essential.

Time: 10.30am, Price: £5.00
(These walking tours last one-and-a-half hours and will involve some stair climbing).

Make & Play

FREE Arts and Crafts for all the family designed with a different theme, inspired by the greatest stories of all time. Make & Play is a fun holiday experience for children and adults alike, whatever the weather!

Dates: 23 & 30 July, 6 & 13 August
Time: 10.30am
Duration: 1 hour
Location: Café or on the front lawn, in a Yurt tent!
EXPLORERS
THE SCOTTISH PLANT HUNTERS GARDEN

1 April to 31 October 2019
Times: 10.00am – 5.00pm (last entry 4.15pm)

“One of the most beautiful gardens I’ve ever been in... it’s a huge tribute to Scotland’s past and the wonderful plant explorers”
Carol Klein, BBC Gardeners’ World presenter

Divided into areas representing different parts of the globe, Explorers offers you the chance to learn more about the great Scottish Plant Hunters’ adventures and see the results of their efforts.

Visitors can also enjoy unexpected art and installations, exotic plants, fantastic views, unique specialist features like rock and crevice gardens, archways and walkways, and numerous varieties of birds, as well as our resident red squirrels - guaranteed fun for all the family!

Garden Admission: £4.00, concessions available
Family Ticket: £9.00
Season Ticket: £8.00, concessions available
RHS Members: Free entry (to main cardholder)

Garden Tours

Our experienced tour guides provide insights into the plants, trees, wildlife, history and art contained in Explorers. Lasting around 1.5 hours, these tours are fun, fascinating and informative: you’ll never look at some of your garden plants in the same way again!

Garden Tours (£5.00) must be booked in advance and are only available for groups of 10 or more people.

Workshops

If you like gin, tea, blue poppies (or all three!) turn over to discover exciting information about our summer series of Workshops In The Garden.

Celebrating Modern Scottish Plant Hunters

Photographic Exhibition

Sponsored by the Scottish Rock Garden Club and The Scottish Rhododendron Society

Scotland has a proud history of Botanical Exploration around the world, with plant introductions from both North and South America, the mountains of the Himalaya and the forests of China.

Members of the Scottish Rhododendron Society are delighted to exhibit photographic images taken by some of Scotland’s modern day Botanical Explorers.

The exhibition will be displayed throughout the summer in the magnificent Douglas Pavilion and is free with Explorers entry.

Scottish Gin Tasting!

Be spirited away on a memorable journey tasting three Scottish gins, each specially chosen for their uniqueness and provenance. This series of tastings will be taken by expert Ewan McIlwraith, who is the owner of award-winning drinks retailer Robertson's of Pitlochry. Ewan is a national judge for Scottish Field; World of Whiskies Awards and sits on the judging panel for their annual 'Gin Challenge' competition.

Dates: 11 May, 15 June, 20 July, 10 August
Price: £20.00, includes three shots of gin
Time: 5.00pm | Duration: 1 Hour

Tea Tasting and Talk

Join drinks writer and tea grower Richard Ross to explore the rich history linking tea, Scotland and the Scots. Many of the world’s leading tea-growing regions owe their origins to pioneering Scots, from Darjeeling to Sri Lanka, Assam to Malawi. Hear tales of exile, smuggling, espionage and botanical detective work in pursuit of the world’s most popular drink. Includes tea tasting!

Date: 28 July  | Price: £20.00
Time: 3.00pm
Location: David Douglas Pavilion, Explorers Garden

How to Grow A Meconopsis

Learn how to grow the Himalayan blue poppy! Lead by Julia Corden, Explorers Garden Manager, this workshop includes a guided walk through the Garden which has been awarded National Collection Status for its Meconopsis cultivars and species of large blue poppies by Plant Heritage. All workshop participants will leave with a free blue poppy.

Date: Sun 9 June | Time: 10.30am
Price: £20.00, including a free blue poppy
Duration: 2 Hours
Location: David Douglas Pavilion, Explorers Garden
